The Scheme Won't Work.

It is stated as an item of interest, that Col. Fremont, who, on Saturday last, with Giddings, Sumner, Banks, Tappan of New Hampshire, &c. Dr. Bailey is the editor of the anti-slavery paper in Washington—Washington Daily Spy, 5th inst.

We have known for some time, that a scheme was on foot by the politicians of Washington, to bring forward John C. Fremont as the candidate of the Republicans for the Presidency. Weasled a leading politician of the Empire State, on the 6th of March, what was the object and meaning of the paragraph, in so many Republican papers, suggesting Col. Fremont as a candidate. And he replied they were put forth as feathers. And when in reply to our questions, he frankly admitted that Mr. Fremont could not carry a single Southern State, or a single Northern one which Chase or Sewall could not carry, and when we asked in the name of reason why then take men whom we don't know and who have no antecedent anti-slavery history, why may cheat us after they are elected, and why not take up men whose election will be an unmistakable triumph, we got no answer. We understand that the Republican Member from the Northern District of this State is quite a Fremont man, and thinks he might carry Missouri. If the Republican party must stoop low enough, in its reach after Presidential candidates, to secure the vote of the Border Ruffian State, where Whiggery, even, is so intensely pro-slavery that it has gone over to Pierce, Douglas & Co. Heaven help the party. If the leaders of the party wish to demolish and ruin it, let them cast off all the tried and faithful champions of the Republican cause, and let them take up men unknown in our ranks, whose conversion to our cause dates with the hope, prospect or promise of an office. By such a course they will not only damn the party but the hopes of their favorite. For there are thousands of Republicans in every Free State who will not vote for such candidates, if nominated by the National Convention. And if such a course is pursued, a Convention will be called of true men, who are not to be made the foot-ball of trading politicians, and candidates be put in the field who will represent the sentiment of the anti-slavery men of the North. We were told by Martin Van Buren, in 1848. We do not propose to be partners to such a sale again. We warn our readers that plans are on foot to trade off the Republican party to the Know Nothings, on the one hand, and to the party dealers, on the other. If the People are true to themselves, all such plans will fail.

THE WATERTOWN CHRONICLE SAYS:

We regret to see the Free Democrat find so much fault with the proposed call for a Delegates Convention. And it gives three reasons why it is opposed to a Mass Convention at this time, viz: The busy season of the year, the want of Railroad facilities, and the bad effect a failure to get a large Mass Meeting would have. These objections had more force against the calling of the Mass Convention of July 13, 1854, than now. But as it was necessary to have such a Convention to organize the party, the politicians could not dispense with it. And now, having got the organization of the party into their own hands, they want no more Mass Conventions, except as the Chronicle suggests, to ratify nominations. We conversed, yesterday, with one of the members of the State Central Committee, who says he received a letter from the Chairman only a day before the meeting of the Committee was to be held—too late to get there—and this was the second time he had been thus notified out of season—that a majority of the Committee are Know Nothings, and he expects to see our State Convention controlled by them. If the K. N. go into the Convention, we expect to see a division. There will be two sets of delegates from many Districts, we learn, if the K. N. take part in the caucuses. We hope all may be peaceful and satisfactory, but we shall not be disappointed at squalls.

BUT TWO PARTIES.—The American thinks the candidates nominated by the Know Nothing Convention on the 12th of June, will be ratified and approved of by the Republican Convention which meets on the 17th of June at Philadelphia, but if not, the Know Nothings will stick to their candidates. Also, "that but two Presidential tickets will probably appear in the field of Wisconsin politics—a Democratic and an American or Union ticket, and that the voters of the State will, therefore, be obliged to choose between two candidates for President." And so it exhorts and begs the party to take the bull by the horns, &c. Great assurance!

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—We understand that J. R. Sharpstein, Esq., has bought out the interest owned by Messrs. Clason & Huntman of the News—two-thirds of it—and that Messrs. Sharpstein and Benton are now Proprietors. This gives Mr. Sharpstein and the Barstow wing of the Democracy, the controlling interest in the paper.

ALBANY CHARTER ELECTION.—The election in Albany N. Y. on Tuesday last resulted in the choice of Eli Perry, the National Democratic and Know Nothing candidate for Mayor, by 7 majority, over Quakenbush (Soft). Mr. Ten Eyck, the Republican nominee, received 1207 votes; Quakenbush 3305; Perry 3312.

JUDICIAL.—So far as returns are received from the 6th Judicial circuit Knowlton leads Gale largely. In La Crosse city, Gale, received 158 majority and 152 in that county.

Geo. W. Haskins, late of the Detroit Advertiser, has become local editor of the Buffalo Express.

REMOVAL OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC PROPERTY.—Gen. Bashford has removed Mr. James Hays from the office of Superintendent of Public Property.

Editor's Table.

THE "EPIC OF THE STARRY HEAVENS"—a volume of poems of some 300 pages—which claims to have been dictated by spirits, was delivered by THOMAS L. HARRIS, while in a trance state. It numbers four thousand lines: from one hundred and twenty-five, to two hundred lines were dictated at each sitting, there being twenty-two sittings in all. He was often unexpectedly entranced, and sometimes away from home, during the delivery of the poem. The exact time occupied in communicating the whole, was twenty-six hours and sixteen minutes. As many of our readers have probably never seen the poem, we make some extracts. In the poem, or preparatory vision, he is led

"Where the heart's inner voice, in form controlled, Slits and seers and atmospheres of gold— All life to live in light and radiant tints; All thought on clouds of glory runs; All sorrow, like the wings of a winged sun, Are and celestial radiance, Far extends The pure domain. Love blends in this light sphere, Hope's longest horizon, with her Way and Here. Here kindred souls, who dwell on earth apart, Blend in the sweet embrace of the heart."

Homeward they fly, by the swift life-winds driven, And far white sails upon the shores of Heaven!"

In the first part Mr. Harris beautifully describes his ascension to the spirit-world. He says—

"I felt the float Of music lit me to that region clear Of endless morning, where the Mists of Sorrow Slides from the Infinite, and every knee Is bent in living adoration there."

A company of spirits drew near him and said "The days, dear friend, Thine art our guest; come, with thy blessed flight Through the unrolling ocean of sweet light."

He first visited the electrical ocean of the solar system, in close proximity to the planet Mars.

"Sleep" is used in this poem "to signify a state of transition, during which the spiritual senses gradually cease to take cognizance of scenes previously mirrored upon the mind."

"A company of spirits, whose white robes Are twined like lilies, float above the deep— Their music hushes my spirit into sleep."

As slant the dewy billows of the Ocean When Night is on the skies, So the long swells of thought subside in me; Sleep closes up mine eyes."

And he is borne to an "Eden of conjugal affection near the planet Mars."

"The Eve of this sweet secret Paradise Speaks, The love-music of her eyes, The still, sweet music of her inner thought Reveals unto my spirit, I am brought Into celestial rapport with her mind."

Ten thousand graces tend her; Lilies more in her own splendor She dwells than in her outer form serene, Making her joy to give."

Oh, God! to me thy gifts To love's Ecstasy! Beauty's Maiden Queen!"

Here he enters an Eden of maternal affection.

"A company of Angels, Each one of whom resembles The Virgin Mary, sit beneath the palms; Each nursing on her bosom, A babe of soul in blossom."

And they sweetly sing— Sleep, children, sleep, young innocents in mortals, Watched from Heaven into our loving arms; Sleep with your faces turned to Heavenly portals, Lulled by melodious charms."

"Didst thou ever think of the human tongue, How still is itself, yet speaking the air Into music of wisdom, melody and rare? Look at it, I think of it. The tongue can tell Great truths, yet itself like the tongue of a bell It blinks not, and it has no voice, Yet its golden tones bid the world rejoice."

All matter is the tongue— Out from its motion God's thoughts arise, And the music notes are the sun and stars."

"A new-born day Is breaking on me, I survey An orb so beautiful it seems Just born from out GOD'S morning dream."

"And my thoughts close their leaves like sunset dowers I tremble into rest!"

On the whole, there are many beautiful things finely expressed in this volume, interspersed with much that, to the ordinary reader, is obscure and fanciful. The matter and style of the work are not so remarkable as the manner of its composition. That it could have been dictated, without premeditation, in little more than sixteen hours, is almost incredible, notwithstanding the array of credible testimony to the fact. There are more things a heaven and earth, than are dreamed of in the philosophy of most people.

United States Court, JUDGE MILLER PRESIDING.

FRIDAY, April 11th. Jefferson County Bank vs. Thomas W. Wheeler, et al. Smith & Salomon, plaintiffs' attorneys. L. J. Merriek, defendant's attorney; judgment for $12,900.

Paul Kingston vs. Archibald Barnard. La. In & Sleever, plaintiffs' attorneys, Edmons & Van Dyke, defendant's attorneys; judgment for plaintiff.

Samuel H. Robertson et al. vs. M. Leola Sellers. J. C. Starkweather, plaintiffs' attorney; judgment.

Joseph Sringham vs. Charles Doty, et al. Brown & Ogden, complainant's solicitor, decree vacated.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT PHILADELPHIA.—The Artisan building, an immense structure, at Philadelphia, was totally destroyed by fire on the night of the 10th inst. Every portion of the building was occupied by artisans, and the loss by stock, fixtures, &c., is very large. Duval, lithographer, occupied one floor; loss $100,000; including plates of Com. Perry's expedition to Japan—later insured for $200,000. Mr. D. had forty steam presses, and an immense stock of stones.

Among other occupants, Mr. Smith, silver smith, lost $4,000 insured. G. W. Desmond jeweler, lost $20,000 insured $30,000. J. & I. P. Warriner, watch and case makers, lost $15,000, insured for $5,000. Mass & Brother cloth and station printers, lost $30,000, insured $10,000. A. Camp, lost $8,000. Up like Shepard & Co., lost $15,000. Some dozens or more other tenants met with losses more or less. Messrs. Cowperthwait lost $12,000 worth of sheet stock, distributed among various printing and binding establishments, mostly insured. The building was owned by H. Cowperthwait, and was valued at $60,000, insured. The aggregate loss is about $200,000.

FIRE AT NEW YORK.—On the night of the 10th inst, a fire broke out in the extensive packing box manufactory of Hawley, Lowry & Co., on Gold Street, in New York, and the flames spread rapidly through the premises. The building was five stories, and the fire extended to the two upper floors of Win. Haer & Co.'s type foundry. Two buildings, No. 40 & 42, occupied by the packing box factory were almost totally destroyed. Loss estimated at between $15,000 and $20,000—uninsured.

SCHOONER SEARCHED FOR SLAVES.—The schooner Maryland, recently seized at Hampton Roads, for alleged violation of Virginia laws has been searched, but no fugitive slaves were found. The captain was taken to Norfolk, Monday evening, but as it was thought the Court there had no jurisdiction in the case, he was taken back to Hampton Roads to be tried. Mention the vessel is held in custody until security is given for payment of the penalty of $500, incurred in refusing to have the schooner searched. Her owners refused to comply with the law.

CONGRESSIONAL.—The Senate on the 11th inst. passed 48 private bills, including one for relief of U. S. Officers and soldiers who sustained losses by the wrecks of the San Francisco and Winfield Scott steamers.

In the House the bill to pay J. S. Peardle for diplomatic services was passed.

LA CROSSE CHARTER ELECTION.—The election in La Crosse on Tuesday last resulted in the choice of the following officers: T. B. Stoddard, Mayor; F. A. Moore (of the Democrat) Clerk; W. W. Ustick, Treasurer; H. E. Hubbard, Justice; Peter Burns, Marshal and C. R. Rogers, Attorney. The Mayor and Treasurer elect were on the People's ticket, and the others on the Democratic. The vote for Mayor stood: Stoddard 216, Levy 215.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The youngest son of John Whitney, of Chicago, while on a hunting excursion about twelve miles south of that city, on the 11th inst., with a son of Mr. Bell, of the Commercial College, was accidentally shot by the latter, and died in a few hours.

WE learn from the Ripon Spur that 100 new buildings are to be immediately erected in that village.

CASE OF S. M. BOOTH OF MILWAUKEE.

Our readers have not forgotten the case of S. M. Booth of Milwaukee, nor the noble stand made by the Supreme Court of Wisconsin, for the maintenance of the reserved rights of the State. It will be remembered, too, that after the trial, the Supreme Court of the United States, issued a writ of error, commanding the Supreme Court of Wisconsin to send up a record of its proceedings, which writ was disregarded, and the appellate jurisdiction of the U. S. Court denied in all cases arising under a State law. These points we have before stated and commented upon them at length. The New York Courier and Enquirer says that the Attorney General of the United States has more during the term, for leave to file it. If it obtains this leave, the case will be tried on its real merits. One of the actions against Booth, presents directly the question of the constitutionality of the Fugitive Act, and the other brings into question the competency of any State authority to discharge a prisoner held by United States officers under section of Federal laws.

We are glad that these points have at last been brought in a definite shape before the highest tribunal of the country, and trust that our technical matter will arise to prevent their adjudication. There have in many States been seriously doubted, and have been the occasion of legislation calculated to bring State and Federal authority into collision. If the constitutionality and supremacy of the Fugitive Slave Law are what friends claim it to be, then is this habeas corpus and personal liberty legislation all wrong. This law has now been in force more than five years, and it is high time that its precise character and legal sanction should be authoritatively determined by that Court whose decisions bind all States alike, and admit of no appeal."

Wisconsin is not alone in the assertion of the old fashioned doctrine of State Rights to which we claim a quarter of a century ago, the State of Georgia refused to admit the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court in a matter involving the validity of a State law relative to the Cherokee Indians. The authority of the Federal Court was successfully defied. An Indian held in custody under a Georgia statute, alleged to be unconstitutional, was hanged and buried in the country. In that instance the Georgia Court refused to file its record for the use of the Supreme Court in a case of appeal.

We shall now see whether State Rights in Georgia are to be called treason in Wisconsin. What "various" Caleb Cushing has "found to obtain the record," we know not, but if the Clerk has obeyed the order of the Court—as we doubt not he has—Caleb could not obtain it without getting some one to steal it for him, or stealing it himself.

However, we wait with patience the will of Providence and Caleb Cushing.

ST. LOUIS ELECTION.—The following is the result of the St. Louis Election for city officers:

For Mayor—John How, (Benton) 6,974; M. Brotherton (American) 4,404; How's majority, 2,570.

For Comptroller—Jno. Hartnett, (B.) 7,035; J. C. Norris, (A) 4,320; Hartnett's majority, 2,715.

For Register—J. G. Harper (B.) 6,945; Jno. Bryan, (A) 4,405; Harper's majority, 2,540.

For Treasurer—Louis Beck, (B.) 6,962; B. J. Vincent, (A) 4,333; Beck's majority, 2,629.

For Auditor—J. B. Welch, (B.) 7,000; A. P. Pack (A) 4,342; Welch's majority, 2,658.

How has always been a democrat, but just before election refused to pledge himself to the support of the nominee of the Cincinnati democratic convention until he saw the platform it adopted. He is opposed to the Missouri Border Ruffians.

VIGILANCE SOCIETY.—The farmer's Society of vigilance held its annual meeting at Whitewater recently, and elected the following persons to fill the offices of the Society for the present year:

Giles Kinney, President. Egbert Wheeler, Vice-President. M. R. Farnsworth, Secretary. Ansel Salebury, Treasurer.

The next annual meeting will be held at Whitewater, the third Monday in March, 1857.

THE Whitewater Gazette says: There is no doubt that half of the apple trees in this neighborhood are destroyed. A number of our farmers have discovered within the past two weeks, that in the orchards by the branches spreading from the trunk, the bark has turned dark and shrunk, and will peel off. In some cases the branches are healthy in their appearance; and in other instances they are withered and of a dark color.

The strange blight affects both old and young trees, and is supposed to be the result of the winter.

The four babies who took the leading prize in the Boston Baby Show have all since died—killed, doubtless, by precocity, foolishly stimulated by fond parents.

NO MORE DILUTION.

The Fond du Lac Freeman copies our remarks and those of the Chicago Tribune, on the Platform Makers, at Washington, and adds to them the following comments:

We see in the above, needed notes of warning to tell the truth, we have great fears that the holy cause of universal freedom is fast being wrecked so far as the organization of the Republican party, as it was conducted at Pittsburg is capable of doing. Where is the heart response that has come up from Liberty loving masses, to many of their political trimmers, and old blundered editors of the Washington Union, and now a Maryland slaveholder, was President and not only that, was the pet of the Convention.

The proposition to engrave on the platform opposition to the admission of a slave State, let it be formed out of any Territory, was voted down in committee. Joshua R. Giddings, was spirited from the Committee and a more conservative man from Ohio, taken to put in the place of Mr. Giddings could fill. A short, spirited, triumphant address, prepared by Mr. Giddings, was laid aside, and one voluminous in its place, from the pen of Abijah Mann, whose sole anti-slavery character consisted in the assuming of his address, which gave for the restoration of the Missouri Compromise, and the admission of Kansas and Nebraska as Free States. Until men oppose slavery everywhere, because of its inherent diabolism, and demand that all states shall be free, there is but mighty little dependence to be placed upon them as workers in the cause of Freedom.

The conservative tinkering done by this Convention, and the eternal tinkering that Anti-Nebraska Convention, sided by the Know Nothings are doing now at Washington to draw in conservative men, on a dilute platform, is calculated to fill every earnest anti-slavery man with fearful forebodings, that the long sighted politicians of the south are jumping into the Republican movement for the very purpose of diluting it to death. Since the Convention was held, some slaveholders of Maryland have charged F. P. Blair with aiding the slave property cause for the purpose of wresting from them a letter, casting off the imputation with spirit, and affirming that he goes into it for the purpose of procuring Abolitionists, as he holds the restoration of the Missouri Compromise would restore quiet, and put the peace mind on the question, so that they could enjoy their rights in slave property, in complete security where it now. This he holds is the end and aim of the Republican movement.

Now we do not hold that the opinion of Mr. Blair commits the party to his views, but we do object that so narrow an issue should be presented to the people, that it will appear from the record that Mr. Blair has correctly represented it.

We greatly fear in the strong effort now being made to convince what are termed moderate men, that there is no Abolition in the purposes and aims of the new Republican party, that it will become an unwieldy body without a soul, will drive from its ranks the earnest workers for Freedom who have borne the cross and really deserve its Crown.

The new tangled doctrines so loudly preached at Washington just now, "nothing for men, and everything for the cause," when it is dissected, means just this, that our Seward, and Chase, and Sumner, and Giddings, and men of that stripe, who have the confidence of the anti-slavery hosts, are to be ostracized, not to radical to serve Freedom, and the standard must be transferred to Blair, or Fremont, or Benton, in order to commend the cause to conservative men.

We feel these words of warning are needed and have thrown them out, that all the good they are capable of doing may be done in season to aid the voice of Wisconsin in its utterance in the coming Presidential Nominating Convention. We must have men sent to that Convention who will not concede all to that striving for years, for the sake of the co-operation of slaveholders, whose only aim is to quiet the roused wrath of the North, that they may more firmly rivet the chains upon their own chattels. And to this end let the people in the Assembly Districts bestir themselves to send uncompromising men to the State Convention.

Crowds of Admirers Visit
FOWLER & HORN'S GALLERY.

NO. 2014, East Water Street, Empire Block, to examine their beautiful and finished specimens of Photography, Ambrotype and Stereotype.

Mr. Horn is a painter by profession and invites public attention to his special painting Photographs. These pictures EXCEL THE FINEST PAINTING UPON IVORY, and while they equal the works of the Masters in their delicacy and richness of coloring, far surpass them in exactness and give PERFECT FIDELITY TO NATURE, expressive of the original.

Friends, relatives and lovers will now rejoice in the possession of perfect likenesses, at a price that places them in the reach of all. Our painted Photographs are subscribers to be all that is here represented, and we guarantee them to give them their color without fading at least as long as paintings on ivory.

Particular attention is also paid to Ambrotypes and Daguerotypes, and ALL THE IMPROVEMENTS IN THE ART are applied by us as soon as introduced in the art.
